Poetry Artwork

My poetry artwork is spiritually created. The creativity is innate and as with the Reiki, I am a conduit for the creative energy to flow through. Showcased in an eclectic gallery and sold at art fairs in Illinois, each piece is one-of-a-kind and handmade. Reiki energy is added to each piece and includes the intention that all who view it receive that loving energy.

Any replication, republication or redistribution of any Poetry and/or Poetry Artwork is strictly prohibited. All rights reserved.
